

MEGAN PULS

Ceramic Artist

meganpuls.com

Inspired by the natural landscape.
Particularly the extraordinary and ever-changing world of the wetlands.

I am constantly creating, experimenting and pushing boundaries.

My work is highly awarded, widely exhibited and acquired.

Each of my vessels tells the story of nature.

Organic in shape.

Quiet in manner.

They evoke the beauty and complexity of our fragile ecosystem.

I have fascination with our ever changing environment and a deep passion to create.
